Did not Cicero in one age, and Petrarch in another, receive supernatural information of the death of a distant friend? Did not a spirit inform Caesar s wife that she must tell Caesar if he attended the senate on the ides of March, he would be killed? And is there any body in this city who was not heard of the little old man who appeared to M S. W, Esq., of this city, attorney at law, and informed him of an event which at the same moment happened at a distance of more than twenty miles; and as soon as he had delivered his message, vanished through the key hole into thin air? No one therefore need to doubt me when I declare that I...
