Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language:

English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand *****.

It's in fact a moving story with the theme of contemporary romance.

But it's slightly horror as well, as obviously, the hero of the novel wanders through the world (for the making of his life).

This book also weaves love and stupidity, eagerness and patience, fun and sensuality, truth and treachery as the main hero of the novel takes the adventurous steps through his purgatorial nature of his life who portrays he's a hard-nosed character ever to tell the readers that he's not made to be defeated, unless destroyed. The fact is that - subject on traditionally social norms and lineage, as opposes rudely by the heroine's guardian, might have been the sheer battle against their love at first sight (timid and innocent couple). But in the end, the heroine discovers the truth and forgives him and agrees to reunite their relationship. Here it goes: Shangkar agrees with his dad's advice (Montiago) and goes on to marry

Shirley (Kirstein's white fair daughter) just like a young maiden...
