In the beginning, there was no good or evil, only existence. This life inhabited a realm parallel to Earth known as Caclisma. Since the world was harsh and could hardly sustain life, the seven sages of time were born. They were granted the ability the control all five elements- earth, fire, water, air, and spirit-in order to mold the realm for future generations. In the end, their objective was met as they had created a realm capable of supporting any life-form. They were then lost in time themselves. Shortly thereafter, life began to flourish. First the elven, the dragon, and the unicorn, then finally from Earth, the humans. These humans, however, were too smart for their own good. They studied the wildlife, and they learned how to meddle with the elements, ultimately plunging themselves into a hopeless war. This was when the prophecy of the five champions was written, and a stone of spirit was sent to earth to resurrect them. Nearly two thousand years later, the champions were discovered and immediately sent to Caclisma. Unfortunately, the champion of earth was transported with such force that she fell into a coma. Lost within her head in the earthlike city of Desland, she is forced to relive the events of her past, and this is where her story begins. Join Terra and the rest of the champions as they scramble to save themselves and the rest of Caclisma from the civil unrest that has plagued it for ages in part one of The Caclismian War series, Emerald Shards.
