Excerpt: . . . 11 you and Dr. Combs referred to, which GAO fully supports, have bolstered the emphasis in this important area. Has financial reporting improved As you pointed out in your opening statement, 18 clean opinions versus 6. In 1990, no one even imagined we would have a requirement for audited financial statements. There were pilots. They weren't expected to go too far. No one would have ever imagined one clean opinion versus 18, much less in 45 days. Where the law gives folks 5 months, the fact of the matter is in some of those earlier years, there were some agencies that took up to 13 and 14 months. So this is a major achievement. Most importantly, we have witnessed a culture transformation. In 1990, not everyone in the CFO community was supportive of the CFO Act. Some believed the demand for reform would simply run its course and fade away. Well, that has not been the case. We have seen strong support from the past three administrations. From the outset of the current administration, improved financial management has been one of the cornerstones of the Presidents management agenda. We have seen strong support and continuous oversight by the Congress. Especially important has been this sub-committees strong leadership. As Dr. Combs mentioned, you get what you measure. And one measure, a very important measure, is whether Congress really cares. ten years later, people no longer question the value of the...
