Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Child Welfare Work in Oregon: A Study of Public and Private Agencies and Institutions for the Care of Dependent, Delinquent and Defective Children The Oregon Child Welfare Commission hereby transmit to your honorable body the following report by Dr. W. H. Slingerland, of the Russell Sage Foundation of New York, on child-welfare conditions and problems in Oregon. In submitting this report and study, we wish not only to bear testimony to the broad sympathy, intelligence, and expert thoroughness of Dr. Slingerland s work, but to record our conviction that through the medium of his report the Child Welfare Commission, in the most effective manner possible is meeting both the letter and the spirit of the mandate put upon it by you and through you by the Legislature of 1917, through Senate Resolution No. 21, calling for an exhaustive inquiry into all conditions, problems, and desirable betterments with reference to dependent, delinquent, and defective children in this State. The Russell Sage Foundation has a special department for just this work; and one of the experts in this department is Dr. Slingerland, who has been conducting inquiries and gathering knowledge and experience in all parts of the Union for a series of years. For instance, he has made studies and reported on child conditions in our neighbor-states of California and Washington. When, therefore, the Foundation consented to lend the Oregon Child Welfare Commission Dr. Slingerland s services, and when the Extension Division of the University of Oregon, recognizing the high public import of the researches to be undertaken, agreed to give them its financial and every other necessary support, we eagerly seized upon these means of handling...
