Sundaes etc. R. C. writes For about six months I have been owner of a Spatula Soda Water Guide. I cannot express my pleasure in having the book, one single formula being worth many times the price of the book. Do you publish any books treating on the manufacture of College Ices and Ice Cream? The method of making and serving College Ices was fully explained in the April issue of the SPATULA for 1902. The Drug Clerk in the State Board. The drug clerk as a factor is to be considered in the future. He is prominent at widely separated points. He has been buried behind the counter a long time, but he begins to realize that he is not receiving compensation for the time and talent required in his calling. He wants shorter hours or more pay, preferably shorter hours. The present compensation is barely twenty cents...
